A player is in an offside position if:

He is nearer the opponents' goal line than both the ball and the second last defender.

A player is not in an offside position:

He is in his own half of the field

He is level with the second last defender

A player is penalized if, at the moment the ball is played by one of his teammates, he is involved in active play by:

Interfering with play

Interfering with an opponent

Gaining an advantage by being in that position

There is no offside infraction on a kickoff, goal kick or corner kick.

SCSYSL Simplified Rules Fall 2016

Law 12: Fouls and Misconduct

Direct: Goals may be scored directly from the free kick. A team cannot score directly into its own goal.

Indirect: Goals may only be scored after the ball has touched a second player.

 All kicks in under 6 are direct. All kicks in under 8 are indirect **

* For any penalty assessed to the attacking team inside the opponents goal area, the restart may be placed anywhere inside the goal area. For any indirect kick penalty assessed to the defending team inside their own goal area, the ball is placed on the goal area line closest to where the foul occurred. For any direct kick foul assessed to the defending team inside their penalty area, the result is penalty kick. On all kicks by the defending team, the ball must leave their penalty area to be in play.

A direct free kick is awarded to the opposing team if a player commits any of the following seven offences in a manner considered by the referee to be careless, reckless or using excessive force:

- kicks or attempts to kick an opponent
- trips or attempts to trip an opponent
- jumps at an opponent
- charges an opponent
- strikes or attempts to strike an opponent
- pushes an opponent
- tackles an opponent

A direct free kick is also awarded to the opposing team if a player commits any of the following three offences:

- holds an opponent
- spits at an opponent
- handles the ball deliberately (except for the goalkeeper within his own penalty area)

A direct free kick is taken from where the offence occurred. (see above)*

An indirect free kick is awarded to the opposing team if a goalkeeper, inside his own penalty area, commits any of the following four offences:

- takes more than six seconds while controlling the ball with his hands before releasing it from his possession
- touches the ball again with his hands after it has been released from his possession and has not touched any other player
- touches the ball with his hands after it has been deliberately kicked to him by a team-mate
- touches the ball with his hands after he has received it directly from a throw-in taken by a team-mate

An indirect free kick is also awarded to the opposing team if a player, in the opinion of the referee:

- plays in a dangerous manner
- impedes the progress of an opponent
- Purposefully uses any part of the head to strike the ball (NEW)
- prevents the goalkeeper from releasing the ball from his hands

An indirect free kick is taken from where the offence occurred. (see above)*

Cautionable Offences

A cautioned player MUST leave the field and may be replaced. The cautioned player may return to play at next legal substitution.

A player is cautioned and shown the yellow card if he commits any of the following seven offences:

1. unsporting behavior
2. dissent by word or action
3. persistently infringes the Laws of the Game
4. delays the restart of play
5. fails to respect the required distance when play is restarted with a corner kick, free kick or throw-in
6. enters or re-enters the field of play without the referee's permission
7. deliberately leaves the field of play without the referee's permission

A substitute or substituted player is cautioned and shown the yellow card if he commits any of the following three offences:

1. is guilty of unsporting behavior
2. shows dissent by word or action
3. delays the restart of play

Sending-Off Offences

A player, substitute or substituted player is sent off and shown the red card if he commits any of the following seven offences:

1. serious foul play
2. violent conduct
3. spits at an opponent or any other person
4. denies the opposing team a goal or an obvious goal scoring opportunity by deliberately handling the ball (this does not apply to a goalkeeper within his own penalty area)
5. denies an obvious goal scoring opportunity to an opponent moving towards the player's goal by an offence punishable by a free kick or a penalty kick
6. uses offensive or insulting or abusive language and/or gestures
7. receives a second caution in the same match

Law 13: Free kicks

- U6: All kicks direct
U8: All kicks indirect
U10/12/14: FIFA with exceptions listed in the rules

All opposing players must be this many yards away from the ball during a free kick.

- U6: 5 yds
U8: 5 yds
U10: 7 yds
U12: 8 yds
U14: 10 yds

SCSYSL Simplified Rules Fall 2016

Mechanics for an indirect kick:

- The referee indicates an indirect free kick by raising his arm above his head.
- He maintains his arm in that position until the kick has been taken and the ball has touched another player or goes out of play.

Indirect Kick: A goal can be scored only if the ball subsequently touches another player before it enters the goal.

- If an indirect free kick is kicked directly into the opponents' goal, a goal kick is awarded
- If an indirect free kick is kicked directly into the team's own goal, a corner kick is awarded to the opposing team

Law 14: Penalty Kick

U6/U8: No penalty kicks

U10: Ball is placed 7 yds from the goal line (or just inside the penalty area line)

U12: Ball is placed 8 yds from the goal line

U14: Ball is placed 12 yds from the goal line

A penalty kick is awarded against a team that commits one of the ten offences for which a direct free kick is awarded, inside its own penalty area and while the ball is in play.

Additional time is allowed for a penalty kick to be taken at the end of each half or at the end of periods of extra time.

Law 15: Throw-in

U6: No throw ins (kick-ins)

U8: Re-take throw-ins – same player

U10/12/14: FIFA

A goal cannot be scored directly from a throw-in.

A throw-in is awarded:

- When the whole of the ball passes over the touch line, either on the ground or in the air
- In under 8, when the goalie punts or drop kicks the ball directly over the half-line without bouncing first. The throw-in is taken at the half-line from the point where it crossed the touch line to the opponents of the player who last touched the ball

Procedure:

At the moment of delivering the ball, the thrower:

- Faces the field of play
- Has part of each foot either on the touch line or on the ground outside the touch line
- Uses both hands
- Delivers the ball from behind and over his head

The thrower may not touch the ball again until it has touched another player.

All opponents must stand no less than 2 yards from the point at which the throw-in is taken.

SCSYSL Simplified Rules Fall 2016

Law 16: Goal-kick

U6: Ball is placed about 3 yds from goal line to restart

U8: N/A – see Goalie Release

U10: NEW Fall 2016: FIFA

U12/14: FIFA

A goal kick is awarded when:

- The whole of the ball, having last touched a player of the attacking team, passes over the goal line, either on the ground or in the air, outside the goal.

If the ball is not kicked directly into play beyond the penalty area:

- The kick is retaken

U8: GOALIE RELEASE: When the ball goes out of play over the goal line, last touched by an attacking player:

- Game is restarted with goalkeeper possession and the goalkeeper can throw, kick, punt, or dribble the ball back into play.
- The pass-back rule is not enforced.
- The goalkeeper after handling the ball may not punt the ball over the halfway line. For example, if a goalkeeper kicks the ball, it must bounce at least once before crossing the halfway line. However, the goalkeeper would be permitted to kick the ball across the halfway line if it is not picked up or handled first. Violation of this rule will result in awarding a throw-in to the opposing team of the offending goalkeeper at the nearest intersection of halfway line and sideline. A goalkeeper may not directly receive and handle a throw-in.

Law 17: Corner-kick

A corner kick is awarded when:

- The whole of the ball, having last touched a player of the defending team, passes over the goal line, either on the ground or in the air, outside the goal.

Build Out Line – Under 10

- A build out line must be placed on the field 14 yards from the end line and run across the field touch line to touch line.
- The goalkeeper, after handling the ball, may not punt the ball.
- The 6 second rule will be enforced, when goalkeeper has possession of the ball and all opposing players are behind the build out line.
- A goalkeeper intentionally touching the ball with the hands after the ball has been released from his/her possession and before it has touched another player will be enforced as in FIFA laws of the Game.
- When the goal keeper has possession of the ball in their hands, or during a goal kick, the players on the opposite team must retreat beyond the build out line until the goal keeper releases the ball.
- Players on the same team as the goal keeper are allowed within the area of the build out line.
- Offside rule will be enforced from the build out line to the attacking goal line.
